

[Type here]

young TEC RISING STAR AWARD 2017

young TEC

young TEC Rising Star Award – Terms and Conditions

Application process and judging information:

- Applications are now open with close off date Friday 9 June 2017.
- The general written application should be no more than 6 x A4 pages and file email size less than 5mb.
- The applications must be emailed to young@tourismexportcouncil.org.nz. These will be forwarded to the judges to evaluate who will then select three finalists.
- The three finalists will be invited to attend an interview with the judges at a mutually agreed time during June/July 2017.
- It is at the finalists cost to attend the interview. If not convenient for any party, an 'e or skype' interview could alternatively take place.
- Part of the interview judging process is for the finalist to 'present' their application to the judges with some Q & A to follow.
- The judges for the Rising Star award will be three Young TEC Executive members facilitated by the Tourism Export Council CEO.
- The winner will be announced at the Tourism Export Council Annual Conference Awards evening 16 August 2017.

At the time of applying, all award applicants must:

1. Have the parent company be a financial member of the Tourism Export Council
2. Be a current financial Young TEC Member
3. Be under the age of thirty (30) years

Other conditions:

- Applicants can choose to apply for either the Rising Star award, or the Excellence award, but not eligible to enter both.
- If the winning recipient has already paid for their attendance to the Tourism Export Council Conference 2017, the prize will be deferred to the 2018 Conference.
- There is no cash conversion/refund should the recipient not be able to attend any of the events that make up part the 'events' prize package aside from the $500 travel expenses cash prize
- The prize package of 'events' is for the winning recipient only and not transferable to another person or company employee.

Proudly sponsored by...

