Tourism Export Council of New Zealand members have exhibited at one of the world's largest travel fairs, the World Travel Market in London from 4-6 November.

They shared a 120 square metre stand with Australian Tourism Export Council inbound and supplier members.

“It is critical New Zealand has a presence at all these key trade events to ensure global partners are reminded New Zealand is open and keen to welcome back visitors from all countries around the world and across of sectors and segments,” TECNZ said.

TECNZ chair Scott Mehrtens said it was a valuable event to attend and TECNZ and ATEC hoped to grow the number of ITOs and suppliers attending in the future.
